

Past and present collide in this one of a kind exhibition that explores the biggest, most famous and feared aquatic predators. See incredible life-sized replica skeletons and real fossil specimens.

Themes

Monsters of the Abyss allows visitors to dive into the history of amazing prehistoric and modern day aquatic predators and learn about their ecology and what drives our fear of them. Learn about extinction level events, dig for fossils, and see the monsters in your own oceans, rivers, and lakes that are still around today!

Key Components

Tactile Interactives:

The Phoebe Project at each animal habitat

Life-sized animal sculptures

- Full size mounted replica skeletons
- Megalodon jaw photo opp
- Real fossil invertebrates

Sculpture: Saltwater Crocodile and Sarcosuchus

Digital interactive spin browsers

Live daily shows and animal encounters

Fully staffed

Bilingual

Potential Featured Animals*

Water Dragon

African Bullfrog

Garter Snake

False Water Cobra

Caiman Lizard

Diamondback Terrapin

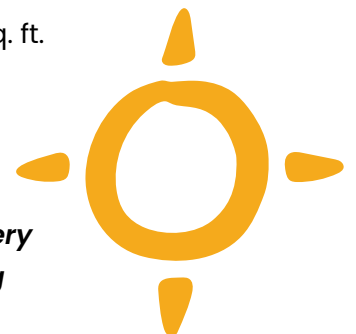

Asian Water Monitor

Featured animals vary by venue and gallery size*

Exhibition Size:

5,000 – 10,000 sq. ft.

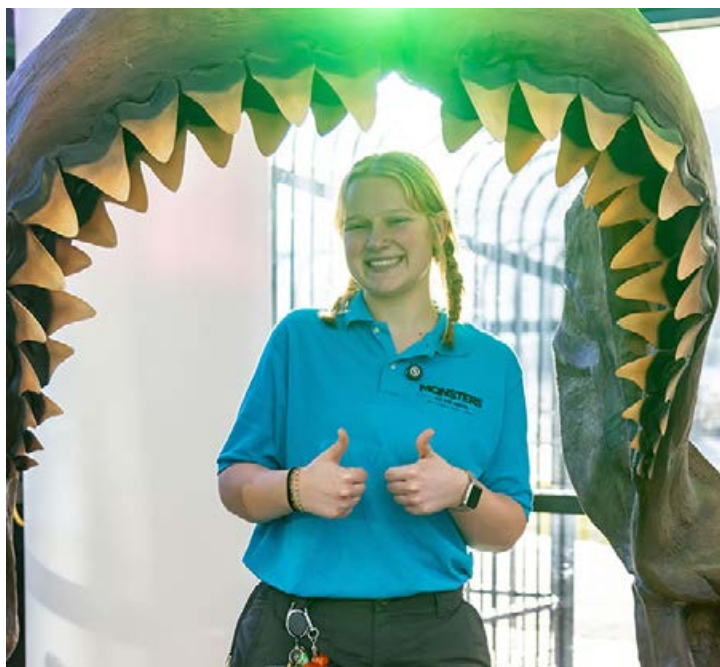

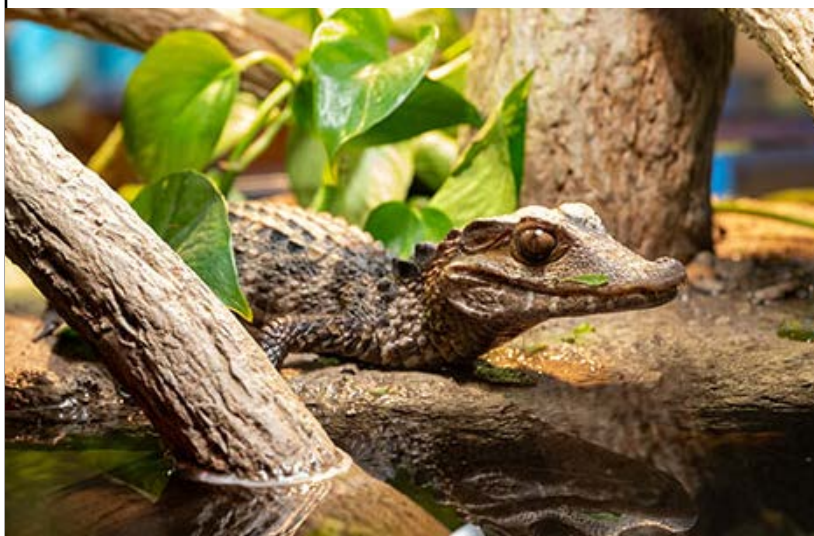

Full Image Gallery
at LittleRays.org

Little Ray's
EXHIBITIONS

Full Image Gallery at LittleRays.org

Contact us for more information at Exhibits@LittleRays.org